Chapter 1 by Elisabeth Ford

Today was supposed to be the day we won the tournament. Phantim, Achillius, Forthwind, Jace, and myself, we were all on the verge of winning against the Red dragons. The number one team in the world. We had them pinned down, and all but defeated, and that's when everything started. Everything shut down, and we were left in total darkness. Our computers turned on, and a message appeared. It said 'Today your lives change, for the better, defeat the game together and you win. Only when you defeat the game will you return.' Then every thing went black.

"What the..." My head ached, I was in the arena. I could see the others' characters looking just as disorientated as I was. "Vlad? Phantim? You guys okay?" "Yeah, yeah. I'm fine Jace, what the hell happened?" Vlad said with a groan, "Are we..."

"In the game?"

"Yeah, wait. The Red Dragons..." I looked around me and noticed my Flame-Burner sword was still in its scabbard. I drew it and saw the others look in amazement at the flaming sword. "I'm not sure I can kill them," It was true, I wasn't.

"Don't worry, I'll help you." Phantim stood up and drew his weapon. It was terrifying seeing him in human form, well if you can say that. He was a reaper, Vlad was a demon, Forthwind was a
